

December 9, 2011
For Immediate Release

Operator/Provider Sought for New Child Care Center in Brooklyn, NY

NEW YORK, NY - The Board of the non-profit Brooklyn Bridge Child Development Center, LLC is seeking proposals from local child care providers to operate a GSA-leased child care center opening in downtown Brooklyn in summer, 2012. Potential providers must be accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

This new child care center will serve approximately 70 children, ages 6 weeks to 5 years. Enrollment priority will be given to federal employees however local community families will also be welcome if space permits.

Proposals from potential center operators must be received by 5:00 p.m., Friday, December 30, 2011. For a copy of the request for proposals and submission form, please email bbcfdc2@gmail.com with the subject "Request for RFP." Any questions concerning the RFP may be emailed to the same address.

###

About the U.S. General Services Administration:

As the federal government's workplace solutions provider, the U.S. General Services Administration works to foster an effective, sustainable and transparent government for the American people. GSA's expertise in government workplace solutions include:

- Effective management of government assets including more than 9,600 government-owned or leased buildings and 215,000 vehicles in the federal fleet, and preservation of historic federal properties;
- Leveraging the government's buying power through responsible acquisition of products and services making up approximately 14 percent of the government's total procurement dollars;
- Providing innovative technology solutions to enhance government efficiency and increase citizen engagement; and,
- Promoting responsible use of federal resources through development of government wide policies ranging from federal travel to property and management practices.

For more information about GSA and the agency's programs, visit www.gsa.gov.